

Yugos Defy Russia In Anti-Tito Campaign

Say Tactics Not Planned To Keep Pace

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Yugoslavia today defied before the United Nations the new cominform campaign to get rid of Premier Marshall Tito. It said such Soviet-backed tactics are not calculated to preserve peace.

In the first Yugoslav reply before the 59-nation assembly to the cominform's most threatening gesture thus far against Tito, Ambassador Sava Kosanovic said no cominform resolution could do away with the Tito government.

He said Tito had the solid support of the Yugoslav people's front and that the Yugoslav situation gives proof of divergence between Soviet deeds and Russian talk of peace in the U.N.

Soviets Have Failed

Kosanovic said the Soviet-dominated eastern European group had been trying for a year and a half to separate the Communist party from the people of Yugoslavia. These efforts, he said, have met with consistent failure and would continue to do so.

Britain's minister of state Hector McNeill told the assembly earlier the new Cominform resolution is "much more like a war manifesto than a peace manifesto."

McNeill pointed to the stunning defeat given the Soviet Union in its latest peace propaganda move in the U.N., and said such efforts had flopped. McNeill indicated in his speech that U.N. delegates, after four long years of hearing Russian speeches on peace, finally are weary of them and hope the Russians will adopt a new and more constructive course.

Talking To Russian Group
McNeill obviously was talking directly to the Russian group in his appeal for a new twist to their conduct in the U.N.

He reminded the assembly that a 12-point British-United States statement of the essentials of peace was approved in the political committee of the U.N. assembly with unanimity never before demonstrated. The statement—put up by the two western powers against Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei V. Vishinsky's proposal for a peace pact plus condemnation of the U.S. and Britain—received 53 votes out of 59. Only the five Slav countries were against it, and Yugoslavia abstained. Vishinsky's proposal was decisively beaten.

"What does this solid vote mean, this identity of conclusion?" McNeill asked. "It means that, at any rate, the propaganda attempts of the Soviet Union delegation to mislead and confuse world opinion have flopped."

Stevenson States He Is Working To Raise Government

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Governor Stevenson declared tonight his administration has been "working hard to raise the moral tone and quality of the state government."

As governor, he said, he can't shape and national or international policies—"but I can improve the probity, the efficiency and the morality of state government, or break my heart and head in the attempt."

In a speech to the Decatur association of commerce, he said: "We are trying to hammer home the economy theme in everything from expense accounts to highway contracts. I think the idea is registering. If the squawks are any measurement I know it's registering."

He said he is "aware that the average citizen believes that the greatest possibilities for reducing the cost of government lie in 'cutting costs.'"

He is "all for that," he added, and it is being done in a lot of places. But state operations account for less than one-third of the state budget, he said, for the state has come to be more and more a distributor of money back to local governments and individuals.

Ode To The Los Angeles Smog

Los Angeles, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Poet Ogden Nash arrived today, on the 11th day of an eye-smarting smog attack, and promptly dictated this rhyme to reporters:

I do not love Los Angeles.
I came here all agog.
To find myself a lone D.P.
Invisible in smog.

Silk worms were smuggled out of China to Europe about 550 A. D. by two monks at the direction of a Roman emperor.

Reds Take Chungking; Chiang In Chengtu

Hong Kong, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Chungking fell today. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek fled his recently established nationalist capital a step ahead of an estimated 20,000 Chinese communists.

Reliable sources in Taipei, Formosa, Chiang's island headquarters, said Chungking was last seen before noon (10 p.m. CST, Tuesday). But the latest Red triumph pushed the nationalists ever deeper into western China.

In Hong Kong, the Chinese newspaper Sing Tao Man Po reported 20,000 communist troops under Gen. Liu Po-Cheng crossed the nearby Yangtze river from the south bank and entered the outskirts of Chungking at 1 a.m. (11 a.m. CST Tuesday). Its dispatch said Kiangpoh, three miles west, was occupied immediately.

Taipei informants said Chiang's personal Skymaster plane reached Chengtu, 170 miles northwest of Chungking, at 11 a.m. They have no details. Government officials preceded the nationalist commander to the indicated new refugee capital—fourth within a year.

The Reds gave the last three Chungking evacuation planes a hot sendoff. "There was gunfire all around," said Miss Marjorie Chen, secretary to the Chinese education minister, on her arrival here from Chengtu. She said the three transporters, including one carrying foreign correspondents, got off safely and reached Chengtu.

Authoritative quarters at Taipei predicted Chiang would take over the nationalist presidency in two or three days and issue an important statement—possibly charting the government's course in the present critical period.

Strike Call Splits Italian Unions

Chicago, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Rep. Lott Holman O'Neill (R-Downers Grove), the first woman member of the Illinois legislature, today announced her candidacy for the state senate.

Mrs. O'Neill seeks the Republican nomination for senator from the Dupage-Will county (41st) district. The post now is held by Sen. Richard J. Barr (R-Joliet) who has been senator from the district since 1902. He plans to retire.

Barr's nephew, James W. Barr, a Joliet attorney, will oppose Mrs. O'Neill in the primary.

Mrs. O'Neill became the first woman in the state legislature when she was elected to the house of representatives in 1922. She ran against Sen. Barr in 1930 but was defeated in the primary. She also sought election as an independent candidate for the United States senate in 1930 and was defeated by the late Sen. James Hamilton Lewis (D).

Laurence Duggan Mentioned In Hiss Trial In Paper

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The name of Laurence Duggan, former state department aide, was injected into the Alger Hiss perjury trial today in connection with a mysterious note referring to prewar battleship plans.

Duggan died last Dec. 20 in a fall from a 16th floor window in New York.

Another note read at the trial named Noel Field, also a former state department aide. Field disappeared in Europe several months ago, presumably swallowed behind the iron curtain.

Mention of the battleships came yesterday in a cryptic note that seemed to hint that Russia obtained plans for two superhips.

Duggan's name was not listed, when the note was read. He was referred to as "Z." Field was identified only by his last name.

The mystery note purportedly was jotted down by former Assistant Secretary of State Adolf A. Berle during a talk in 1939 with Whitaker Chambers, a star government witness against Hiss.

Say 425 Million
Needed For New Illinois Schools
Champaign, Ill., Nov. 30.—(AP)—More than $425,000,000 would be needed for new Illinois schools if the state were redistricted on an efficient basis, the University of Illinois said today.

Another $17,341,000 annually would be required for pupil transportation, the university said.

New Zealand Votes Socialist Rule Out After 14 Years

Auckland, N.Z., Thursday, Dec. 1.—(AP)—After 14 years of socialist rule, New Zealanders have ousted their labor government in favor of free enterprise nationalists pledged to cut taxes and reduce state controls.

The upset, surprising many, came in a parliamentary election of this little British commonwealth nation in the South Pacific yesterday.

The National party won 46 of the 80 seats in the House of Representatives. The Labor party—which held a 42-38 edge in the old House—captured only 34. The 34 laborite winners include the four Maori (native) candidates elected in separate voting by the Maoris Tuesday.

Prime Minister Peter Fraser's cabinet had come to the end of the road. Two of Fraser's ministers were defeated and others were returned to parliament by reduced majorities.

Sidney George Holland, 56, a former business man who has led the opposition in parliament since the Laborites took office in a landslide in 1935, will become the new prime minister.

U. S. Turns Down Foreign Proposals To Import Butter

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Proposals of Denmark and at least a half-dozen other nations to ship butter to this country, at prices below the government support level, have been blocked because of a 100,000,000-pound American surplus.

The stoppage was disclosed by officials of the Agriculture department, which put it into effect on authority of congress. It brought to the fore two major conflicts in federal policy.

1. At least three Marshall plan countries—Sweden, Norway and Denmark—which have been urged by this government to boost their dollar-earning exports, have been denied this means of doing so.

2. The action conflicts with, and in effect suspends, trade pacts under which this country agreed to accept 60,000,000 pounds of butter a year, or 3 per cent of U.S. consumption, at the low tariff of 7 cents a pound.

Diplomatic sources said the countries are continuing to give American exporters the benefit of the tariff cuts. These include Denmark and New Zealand.

Butler is one of the 15 fats and oils whose entry the department of agriculture may restrict. The curb may be imposed whenever it is "essential to the orderly liquidation of temporary surpluses of stocks owned by the government."

Ohio, Oklahoma, Wisconsin Share Livestock Honors

Chicago, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Ohio, Oklahoma and Wisconsin today shared major honors at the International Livestock Exposition.

Biggest award of the day, the purple ribbon for grand champion barrow of the show, went to Ohio State University on a 250 pound Berkshire hog named OSU's Playboy. The reserve grand champion, a Hampshire weighing around 280 pounds, was shown by Willard Guckler and Son of Camden, Ohio.

Selection of the grand champion hog was the last of the show's major awards in cattle, sheep and swine. Oklahoma A. & M. college. Stillwater, which previously won the show's crop judging contest, scored again when its three man team was awarded first place in the inter-collegiate meat judging contest.

A city dweller, Tom Lacey of Madison, Wis., a senior in animal husbandry at the University of Wisconsin, took high individual honors in the meat judging contest.

Three barrows figured in the final judging for the hog grand champion. For a time, they had the two swine judges, L. A. Weaver of the University of Missouri, and R. G. Knox of Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ont., Can., in a dither.

Spears Sentenced To 25 Years For Murder Of Soldier

Chicago, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Eugene Spears, 37, was convicted of murdering a soldier and was sentenced to 25 years in prison today.

Judge Samuel B. Epstein of the Criminal Court heard Spears' trial without a jury.

The victim, Private Edward Garner, 18, attached to Fifth Army headquarters, was slain in the Spears' apartment Aug. 14.

An eyewitness, Andrew Mena, 20, of San Francisco, Calif., a soldier at the time of the shooting, testified he and Garner went to the apartment on hearing it was a place of prostitution. He said the shooting followed an attempted holdup by Spears.

Spears, who pleaded innocent, testified the soldiers tried to hold him up and that he fired in self-defense. The prosecutor said Spears has a record for robbery and auto larceny and that Garner had gone to the flat intending to have relations with Spears' wife, Grace, 26.

Spears lived at 3514 Woodlawn avenue; Garner at 3833 Southport avenue.

Miners Leave Pits As Strike Truce Expires

Avers Ships In China Waters On Their Own

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson took a back-handed slap today at the one American shipping line which has run the Chinese national blockade of the Chinese government's port of Shanghai.

His action was authoritatively interpreted as giving American policy support to nationalist efforts to place the block ocean trade between the Chinese communists and the outside world. Acheson praised the "prudence, wisdom and perceptiveness" of all ship companies which have kept their vessels out of the Shanghai area.

In New York, the president of the steamship company whose vessel was attacked said he'd had his fill of New York that "it would be more double talk and hocus focus" and an answer from the people he makes come to the aid of American ships attacked on the high seas.

On strictly legal grounds, Acheson accused the nationalists of having violated American rights by firing on an Isbrandtsen Steamship company vessel outside China's territorial waters. This government shipping line which has run the Chinese national blockade of the Chinese government's port of Shanghai.

But the major point of a new conference statement he made on the subject appeared to be that in the government's view the Isbrandtsen company should not have sent its ships into Shanghai in the first place. And while he protested the danger to American lives involved in shelling two of the company's vessels this month, Acheson did not question the right of the Chinese nationalists to try to block Shanghai shipping in China's territorial waters.

Commenting on Acheson's statement, Hans J. Isbrandtsen, president of the shipping company, said in an interview that "it would be more double talk and hocus focus" and an answer from the people he makes come to the aid of American ships attacked on the high seas.

On strictly legal grounds, Acheson accused the nationalists of having violated American rights by firing on an Isbrandtsen Steamship company vessel outside China's territorial waters. ## Thomas Pleads Guilty As Charged

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) today suddenly dropped his fight against charges of padding his congressional payroll and threw himself on the mercy of the court with a plea of "nolo contendere."

This meant he no longer contested the charges in a four-count indictment alleging fraud and conspiracy against the government.

Sentencing Will Be Friday
Federal Judge Alexander M. Holtzoff immediately set Friday, Dec. 9, as the date for passing sentence on Thomas. The maximum penalty would be 32 years in prison and $40,000 in fines.

Congressional parliamentarians said that if Thomas follows precedent, he will resign from congress. He was re-elected to his seventh term in the house on Nov. 2, 1948, six days before he was indicted.

But congressional officials said Thomas does not have to resign. The house alone judges the qualifications of its members, even in the case of a felony conviction against an already elected member. The courts have nothing to do with it.

At Trenton, N. J., Governor Driscoll asked the state attorney general for legal advice on a special election in case Thomas' seat becomes vacant.

U. S. Taken By Surprise
The dramatic end of the trial, clearly taking government prosecutors by surprise, came less than an hour after the case had resumed for its third day.

Without objection from the government, Judge Holtzoff dismissed the charge against Thomas' co-defendant and former secretary, Miss Helen Campbell, 64, who tipped off the justice department more than a year ago about her employer's operation of a salary "kickback" scheme.

Miss Campbell, who went to the justice department after she had been supplanted by a younger woman as Thomas' No. 1 secretary, had been accused of aiding him in the conspiracy.

But an FBI agent testified that the government's investigation had disclosed no evidence that Miss Campbell received any money from the Springfield public schools, and was principal of schools at Flora, Hoopston and Kewanee. He was a graduate of Knox College, Galesburg.

Tuscola, Ill., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Charles E. Benner, 24, living near Tuscola, was killed yesterday in an automobile accident. His car skidded on a gravel road and cracked up seven miles north of Charleston.

ICC Okays Peoria Transit Company Fare Increases

Chicago, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The Illinois Commerce Commission today authorized the Peoria Transportation Company to raise fares on its bus lines in Peoria and environs.

The authorization permits an increase from the present five tokens to 45 cents to a straight cash fare of ten cents. Children's fares are not affected.

The company maintained at a hearing Nov. 15 that with present fares it would fail by $48,854 to meet the 42-year-old president of the CIO International Automobile Workers of America told a news conference. "They're running the country again and the worker is going to suffer."

Night Shifts Fail To Show Up At Mines

Pittsburgh, Dec. 1 (Thursday)—(AP)—John L. Lewis' three-week mine strike truce expired today and his United Mine Workers started leaving the pits for the fourth time this year.

The first walkouts came at nearby California, Pa., where 200 UMW members failed to report for the overnight shifts at Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation's Vesta No. 4 and 5 mines.

And in Kentucky most large coal companies that could be reached said their late shifts were not reporting.

Full Effect Coming
The full effect of the walkout is expected to be felt later in the day when most of the UMW's 400,000 soft coal diggers are due to report.

A spokesman for U. S. Steel Corporation, which employs thousands of miners, declared:

"Our overnight shifts are going in but it is our understanding they will be the last shifts."

In Pennsylvania's coal fields near Johnstown and Uniontown, a spot check showed several thousand men reported for shifts starting last midnight.

However, UMW sources said this meant the miners will work out the last shifts so they will obtain the same amount of pay as diggers who worked the first shifts yesterday.

Two Hours Early
The first walkout came two hours before the strike truce expiration as a UMW representative said in New York the walkout would begin on schedule.

Lewis didn't say a word as his miners began walking off the job. He has scheduled a meeting of his wage policy committee in New York at 9 a.m. (CST) today. Three previous sessions were scheduled this week but were cancelled.

Early this month Lewis ordered his striking miners to go back to the pits until 12:01 a.m. today—while he tried to negotiate a new contract. He hasn't got the contract and no new negotiating sessions are in sight.

As the strike truce expired, cleanup crews went into some West Virginia mines—largest soft coal producing state in the country.

Does Not Produce Coal
A cleanup crew does no work toward producing coal but removes slate and makes repairs needed to return the mine to condition for the next day's production crews.

In northern West Virginia, a local union president said no work notices were posted for a usual late shift last night at two Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Company mines.

In Ohio, three large mines in the Bellaire district were closed as overnight shifts failed to report.

In most all cases where UMW men were working throughout the country, union spokesmen said the men would not work after they completed their eight hour tour of duty.

A Pennsylvania miner who requested his name not be used said simply:

"The next move will be up to Mr. Lewis."

Accord Highlights Adopting Of New IUE Constitution

Philadelphia, Nov. 30.—(AP)—I. perfect harmony, the 400 delegates to the founding convention of the CIO's International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers Union (IUE) today began adopting a provisional constitution and pushed toward adjournment.

Absence of discord, an almost complete by-passing of social activities and a glued-to-the-seat attention to business have made it possible for the delegates to get their jobs done sooner than expected.

It seems almost certain the session will end tomorrow. Originally it had been thought the convention might last through Friday.

There was one unavoidable disappointment today. Secretary of the Navy Francis P. Matthews had been scheduled to talk. But foggy weather made it impossible for him to fly here from Washington.

But still on the program were addresses by Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin and Secretary of the Air Force W. Stuart Symington.

WEATHER

The Norbury Sanatorium, cooperative observer for the U.S. Weather Bureau, yesterday reported the temperatures for Wednesday as follows: High, 54; low, 27; and at 6 p.m., 43. Sunset today, 4:38; sunrise Friday 7:00.

WATER PROBLEMS FACE BIG CITIES

The scarcity of water in the Southwest and the arid mountain states is an old story. But it's startling to hear that New York City on the moist eastern seaboard is short of water.

The press lately has devoted more attention to the country's water problems. Surveys show there is no general shortage. But the distribution of available reserves does not tally with the needs of particular places.

Many portions of the nation are suffering water deficiencies. Industrial growth, heavier use of water-consuming air conditioning machinery, overdevelopment of irrigation in response to high farm prices, and population changes all have contributed to these shortages.

The effect of short supply on population development is obvious. Not so well realized is the impact on industry. Steel, aluminum, chemical and numerous other industries are heavily reliant upon water. Its lack is a powerful check on growth.

About 80 per cent of all U. S. water needs is filled by surface water drawn from lakes, rivers and smaller streams. The remaining 20 per cent is ground water, usually pumped up through wells varying in depth from 30 feet to several hundred feet.

According to a New York Times survey, the use of ground water in the United States has soared from 10,000,000,000 gallons daily in 1935 to 25,000,000,000 this year. This stupendous drain has dropped the water table in some areas to dangerously low levels. Irrigation is taking more than 10,000,000,000 gallons of the present total.

Depleted ground water reserves often spell finish to further expansion, because resort to additional surface supplies may be impossible or too costly.

Even in regions where surface waters appear more than ample to cover foreseeable needs, the high cost of new facilities is a possible stumbling block. For example, New York City has a project under way to use the waters of the Delaware River more than 100 miles off. This will cost some $375,000,000 and will be ready in 1956; but it will meet growing needs only until perhaps 1960, when further provision will have to be made.

No better publicized water problem exists than that in Los Angeles. Right now the city is using only 16 per cent of its Colorado River allotment, depending chiefly on its older source, the Owens River, which taps the tall Sierras.

But southern California is leaping so fast in population that planners are alarmed for the future. Talk has reached the stage where desperate projects like diverting the Columbia River's surplus more than 1000 miles from the Oregon-Washington border get serious consideration.

Regularly popping into the picture is the idea of converting sea water into useful community water supply by desalting it. The Navy developed a process during the war to assure drinking water to flyers and seamen lost at sea. But the operation is still so expensive as to seem prohibitive on a large scale.

Apparently the least the country can do is find out accurately what its water situation is and plan to meet the years ahead. Government agencies say there is no comprehensive water plan for the nation. It is contended that responsibility for water resources has been too widely scattered, that top officials haven't been stirred to action.

Enough facts have now been brought to light to make plain the necessity for a full attack on the problem. Planning future water supplies is a slow enterprise. It avails little to take note of the danger when a shortage has already arrived.

OUGHT TO TRY MOVIES

Miss Vivien Kellems, head of a Connecticut manufacturing firm, has been feuding with Uncle Sam for a long time. She doesn't like the withholding tax. Claims she shouldn't have to be an internal revenue collector for the government.

For a while she dared the government to sue her by refusing to turn over sums due on her employees' income taxes. The federal authorities declined to oblige her. They got the money by lifting the required amount from her bank accounts.

Now she's suing the government to get that money back. Even if she gets Uncle Sam into court, her chances of winning look slim. But she may come up with an important by-product—attention from the press. A fact of which she is undoubtedly aware.

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Safeguard Your Child Against Scalp Ringworm

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

Written for NEA Service

During recent years there have been a number of serious outbreaks of ringworm of the scalp in children. This is in some respects quite different from ordinary ringworm, and although it is comparatively easy to prevent, it is quite difficult to treat.

This kind of ringworm is likely to produce scaly patches on the back or sides of the head. On these patches the hair appears dull in color and is often broken off near the roots. In fact, the hair may fall out entirely in irregular areas.

Treatment is not too satisfactory, as most of the ointments containing chemicals which work on other kinds of fungus infections of the skin are not successful for this. X-ray treatment has been used with some success.

Take Precautions
The most important thing to do about ringworm of the scalp is to recognize its infectious nature and to stop it from spreading. The backs of seats in movie theaters seem to be responsible for a great many cases. In outbreaks of scalp ringworm it has been suggested that movie house furniture should be disinfected once and afterwards the backs protected with paper covers which could be changed fairly frequently.

When ringworm of the scalp is really epidemic in a community an attempt should be made to find all of the cases by making a survey of the school children, and examining the pre-school children in families where an older brother or sister is found infected. Children in institutions are even more likely to be exposed than children in homes and, therefore, are especially in need of examination. Barbers can be of great help by being on the lookout for this condition.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

QUESTION: My neck and shoulders break out in sores which itch considerably. What could cause this?
ANSWER: Without knowing more, it is impossible to even guess at the nature of this difficulty. If in a young person, acne or pimples is a possibility. Why not let your doctor look at it?

Dorothy Farrell, Former Resident, Weds Art Teacher

Miss Dorothy Farrell, a member of a Jacksonville family which was prominent in business and social circles for many years, became the bride of Watson Bidwell of Wichita, Kansas, in a ceremony Nov. 25 at Tulsa, Okla.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Felix Farrell, and has numerous relatives in this city. Her father and grandfather were engaged in the banking business.

The wedding was announced by Mr. and Mrs. Felix M. Farrell, 423 North Roosevelt, Wichita, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

Miss Bidwell attended Radcliff College and was graduated from Illinois College in this city. For several years she served as a member of the faculty of the Illinois School for the Deaf, later going to Wichita where at present she is supervisor of the acoustics department of the Institute of Logopedics.

Mr. Bidwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bidwell of Briggsdale, Colo., was formerly associated with the University of Denver and the Denver Art Museum. After three years in the armed forces he is at present head of the art department of East High school at Wichita. His paintings are represented in many important collections in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Bidwell will make their home in Wichita.

Social Security Cards Needed By Holiday Workers

Holiday season workers should make sure that they have social security cards to show prospective employers.

H. J. Vasconcelles, manager of the Springfield office of the Social Security Administration, said that persons who may secure part or full time work during the Christmas season can save themselves time and trouble by having their social security cards ready before seeking employment.

"Since employers must report the social security number of all employees, they are justified in requesting job applicants to produce evidence of their numbers," he said. "This applies to all employers, regardless of how few workers they employ, and whether the work is permanent or temporary."

Vasconcelles went on to explain that applications are taken by his office both for workers who have never before had social security numbers and for those who have previously held cards but have lost them. He said that workers who have lost their cards should be especially alert to apply for their duplicate cards early, since it requires about a week's time to provide such cards.

The Platinum Xmas Tree

By Hal Boyle

New York.—P.—Squire Rockefeller has our town in a tizzy.

It's about that Christmas tree he put up between his ice pond and the RCA building.

The squire is a right neighborly fellow. Every year about this time his hired hands whack down a tall tree somewhere, and haul it into town and put it up for the community to look at free.

It's got so that the Christmas season isn't official in these parts until the Rockefeller tree is lit, and the natives gather around and watch the ceremony and say something like:

"It's downright purty—and that's for certain."

"I yum, Ma, it's taller'n our tenement."

FARM SHIPMENT WORTH $200,000

Chicago, Nov. 30.—P.—The first shipment of the 1949 crop from the farm of Otto Grosse, 55, was valued at $200,000. It was a consignment of 7500 milk pelts for New York for auction next month.

Grosse said he raised about 25,000 milk a year on his farm near suburban Cary, Ill., and that other pelts will be shipped within the next few weeks.

Yesterday's shipment was made under heavy guard.

The three Pacific coast states—Oregon, Washington and California—produce 34 per cent of the nation's lumber supply.

"TAKE 'ER UP!"—Chief of the sidewalk superintendents at the raising of the annual Christmas tree—a 75-foot Norway spruce—in Rockefeller Center, New York, was Little Jane Messing, 4, of Philadelphia. Workman Michael Dupa sits in the 10-ton tree, which is coated with flameproof silvery paint.

NORMA C. BROWN

Miss Brown has been speaking in public virtually ever since she could talk, from childhood recitations through high school and college oratorical and debating contests, the pulpit and the pastorate.

She served a number of years on the national lecture platform on which she has made more than 10,000 appearances on the National Forum programs. As a member of the Flying Squadron and the allied forces she has been heard in every significant center of the land.

She has served the Mt. Sterling Christian church for the past two years, to which position she came from her work as student pastor and associate director of the Illinois Disciples Foundation at Champaign.

James Stauffer In Serious Condition After Collision

James "Sammy" Stauffer, 37, one of the three Roodhouse men injured when a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy passenger train slowing down for the West Roodhouse crossing hit the Studebaker in which they were riding, Tuesday at 4:30 p.m., is in a critical condition at Passavant hospital.

He is suffering from multiple fractures of the left shoulder, ribs and left hip. He was placed under oxygen and has been given several blood transfusions.

The other two men were Donald Allen Gibbins, 27, owner and driver of the car, and Martin Laffey, 32. Gibbins' condition is described as serious. His right jaw is broken in two places and he is suffering from shock.

Laffey, who was thrown out into a pile of cinders, sustained minor injuries, being cut and bruised about the face.

All three are at Passavant hospital, where they are being treated by Dr. Ellsworth Black.

Before being brought to the hospital here, they were attended by Dr. Walker and Dr. Bucklin of Roodhouse.

I. C. Hilltoppers Ready For Friday Night Performance

The Hilltop Players of Illinois College are making last minute preparations for their production of "As Husbands Go," which will be presented on Dec. 2 in the high school auditorium. The players have been coached by Miss Octavia K. Fries, associate professor of speech and dramatics at Illinois College.

"As Husbands Go" is a comedy about the romantic problems which two middle-aged women encounter while traveling on the continent where they are completely fascinated by the bizarre suaveness of European men. Emmie Sykes, a flighty widow, and her lover, Hippolitus Loni, return to America only to find Emmie's daughter, Peggy, opposed to their marriage. Peggy is in with a young man of whom Emmie disapproves. Lucille Lingard, who is very much married to a devoted husband, finds it difficult to explain the presence of her Englishman lover, Ronnie Derbyshire. Hastily she introduces Ronnie as one of Emmie's admirers. One humorous incident follows another until everyone is happy.

In the cast William DeFrances of Jacksonville is welcomed back in the role of Hippolitus Loni, who really loves Emmie although he realizes that "without her money we would be an impossible combination." Florence Majewski of Chicago is Emmie Sykes and Donna Pettewaitte of Chapin is Lucille Lingard. ## Young Vet Tries To Kill Self After Wife Is Murdered

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 30—(AP)—Alone in his car today, Langdon Angle, Jr. read once more the newspaper story of his young wife's slaying.

Pierce migraine pains throbbled in his head again—and he wept. Finally, in a futile gesture, he scribbled across the newspaper these words: "I love you, Lenore."

Then he jabbed his revolver into his stomach and fired.

But for him there was no quick escape from a tortured life as there had been last night for his pretty 17-year-old bride of 11 months, who was shot to death in the street.

His father, head of the local veterans administration, and a detective found him in the car while smoke still curled from the gun.

He was rushed to St. Mary's hospital. Doctors removed the bullet and said he probably would live. The slug was sent to state police headquarters for comparison with the two which killed his wife.

Detective John De Blay asked the 22-year-old veteran if he was the one who shot his wife. De Blay said Angle answered: "I guess so."

Ewert Pays Tribute To Pioneer Pastors

Speaking before the Morgan County Historical society at a dinner meeting at the Dunlap hotel on Tuesday evening, Dr. Arthur F. Ewert, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, paid glowing tribute to the nearly 300 ministers who have served the churches of Jacksonville during the life of the city, especially to those of pioneer days.

In order to present a clear picture of the work done by these men, Dr. Ewert prefaced his address with a brief summary of the organization of churches of different denominations in the city, their original places of worship, which were often log cabins or unplastered frame houses, barns or school houses, and the gradual construction of present-day buildings. The speaker gave the honor for the first religious organization to the Methodists, whose "class," organized in 1822, was the beginning of Century church.

Cites Clergymen's Contributions
Returning to the topic of the evening, "Ministers of Jacksonville," Dr. Ewert dwelt especially on two points, the hardships endured by the early-day pastors, and the contribution which clergymen have made, not only to the religious life of the community, but also to the advancement of learning in the city.

As an example of early-day difficulties, Dr. Ewert told the story of "Father" John Brich, itinerant missionary to Missouri and Illinois, founder of the first Presbyterian church in Jacksonville and of other churches throughout the state, who lies buried in Glenview cemetery in Moline. His grave is marked by a simple marble slab reading, "John Brich, Missionary. Frozen to death. March 9, 1837."

The speaker also cited the case of a Baptist missionary, Thornton Shepherd, who said after preaching every Sunday for 55 years that he never received as much as $5.00 from any one of his brethren.

First among the religious leaders of the city who also did much to advance the cause of learning, Dr. Ewert named John Millot Ellis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, whom he called the forerunner of Illinois college. He called attention to the fact that the members of the Yale band who came to begin instruction in Illinois College in 1829 were clergymen, and that all but one of the presidents of MacMurray college have also been ministers of the gospel.

Dean Of Clergymen
Dr. Ewert found that there has been an unusual number of long pastorate in Jacksonville, ranging from 12 to 23 years. The longest Protestant pastorate has been that of Dr. Livingston W. Glover, pastor of the First Presbyterian church for 32 years. The dean of all Jacksonville clergymen, he continued, is Rev. Father Francis F. Formaz, who has served the Church of Our Saviour, first as assistant and then as pastor, for 48 years.

"Without doubt," Dr. Ewert said, "the two most famous names associated with Jacksonville churches, not as pastors but in executive relation to the churches, are the Peters—Peter Cartwright and Peter Akers." Peter Cartwright served for 50 years as presiding elder of the Methodist church; and Peter Akers for 64 years in the same church.

Dr. Ewert concluded his address with a tribute to all the ministers of the city, many of whom are unknown to fame, but who have done lasting work for the community.

Ella B. Warren, New Berlin Bank President, Dies
Mrs. Ella Boynton Warren, president of the Warren-Boynton State Bank of New Berlin, died Tuesday evening at 5:30 o'clock at her home in Springfield. A prominent resident of Sangamon county, she made her home in New Berlin until 1917 when the family moved to Springfield.

Mrs. Warren was born near Pleasant Plains, a daughter of Charles S. and Pauline Boynton. On Oct. 5, 1897, she was united in marriage with C. Birchall Warren in Springfield.

The decedent was active in the New Berlin Baptist church for many years, and was affiliated with a number of Springfield clubs.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Harry B. Smith, and a son, C. Boynton Warren, both of Springfield, and other relatives.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence, 707 South Sixth street in Springfield, with burial in Oak Ridge cemetery.

Chas. DeSilva Retires
As Cafe Proprietor

Charles DeSilva, long a prominent and well-known businessman in this city, has announced his retirement as proprietor of the DeSilva restaurant on East State street. The establishment is now under the management of his daughter, Helen DeSilva Decker, and her husband, Everett D. Decker.
Mr. DeSilva's career in the restaurant business covers a period of nearly 40 years, during which time he became widely-known as "The Hamburger King."

CHARLES DESILVA

Active In Civil Affairs
A resident of Jacksonville his entire life, Mr. DeSilva has been prominently identified with numerous civic endeavors. He has served several terms on the Jacksonville Park Board and an influential member of the Recreation Club. In recent years, he has been energetically devoted to veterans' activities. The Chas. DeSilva Drum and Pipe Corps, which was organized and sponsored by Mr. DeSilva, won national acclaim.

His retirement was brought about by poor health.

Extensive plans are now underway for redecorating the restaurant, under the direction of Mrs. Decker, who attended the Frances Harrington School of Decorating in Chicago and was associated with Mandel Bros. in that city for 12 years, first as a member of the advisory board of home decorators and later having charge of the model rooms department.

Green will be used for the exterior of the establishment, to blend with the newly-installed neon sign. The interior will be revamped by removing the present old-style tables and booths and replacing them with new tables and leather booths. The counter stools will be repolished. Future plans call for air conditioning before next summer and eventually a Coke-tail bar for teenagers, with a special entrance on Court street.

Mrs. Decker is a former Jacksonville resident and is well known in this community. Her husband attended Illinois Wesleyan university and was connected with the Navy Bureau of Yards and Docks during World War II. He was later engaged in the brokerage business and at one time was associated with General Motors in the business promotion department.

New York Stock Market

New York, Nov. 30—(P)—The stock market kept its feet on the ground today despite an unfavorable turn to the labor news.

Prices barely stirred either up or down although a substantial amount of business was done. Aside from a short-lived flurry of demand for railroad issues, however, price action was inconclusive. The rails failed to hang on to all of their gains.

Turnover was around 1,400,000 shares for the full session.
A small group of railway issues edged up in the bond market.

CORN EASES UNDER HEDGING PRESSURE

Chicago, Nov. 30—(P)—Corn eased under hedging pressure on the board of trade today, but other major cereals mostly held steady. Soybeans, weak early, rallied above the previous close in anticipation of export business.

Corn bookings expanded to 125,000 (T) bushels, indicating the country was more willing to sell the cash grain at present prices.

Old crop wheat deliveries made little price change, but the July contract advanced around a cent at times. Some buying was based on a crop report from Nebraska stating that winter wheat throughout that state needed moisture badly.

Wheat closed 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher. December $2.18 1/2; corn was 1/4 to 1/2 cents lower. December $1.28 1/2; oats were 1/2 lower, December 77 1/2; rye was 2 1/2 lower, December $1.35 1/2; soybeans were 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher. December $29.29-2.28, and lard was unchanged to 8 cents a hundred pounds lower, December $10.07.

1,050 Seedlings
Set In Nursery
At Nichols Park

More than 1,000 new trees have been set out at Nichols park, but visitors probably will not notice them. They are seedlings, little fellows between a foot and two feet high, which will be confined to a nursery area for the next couple of years.

"The seedlings will have to be babbled for a year or two," Supt. Russell Kelley explained. "Next spring we will start feeding them, getting them ready for the time when they will be transplanted in various sections of the park."

A shipment of 1,050 seedling oak and ash was received by the park from the Illinois Conservation Department, with which the park board had placed an order. The young trees have been placed in a nursery on the south side of the park.

$10,000 Expended On Murrayville Church

St. Bartholomew parish at Murrayville has virtually completed an extensive program of church improvement begun six months ago. The program included decoration of the church, new light fixtures, refinishing pews and floor, together with many other improvements.

G. H. Schanbacher & Son of Springfield did the work of decoration. The total cost of improvements made thus far is approximately $10,000. To help pay for this comparatively heavy expense, not one dollar was solicited, or accepted, from any one not a member of the parish. All obligations were more than amply met by the prompt and voluntary contributions of a congregation of less than 50 families.

Bishop O'Connor will visit the parish next Sunday, Dec. 4 and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon will confirm the following children: James Burke, Martin Burke, Thomas Casey, Richard Langdon, John Langdon, George Murphy, Donald Murphy, Joseph Rardon, George Riley, Frances Casey, Patricia Casey, Dorothy Doolin, Celeste Flynn, Barbara Lonergan, Helen McGrath, Rose Mary Riley and Janet Walsh.

The public is cordially invited to attend this inspiring ceremony of the Sacrament of Confirmation, or to drop in any day to view the lovely interior of the church.

Where does your family fit in the above pattern? About one-third of America's families and single individuals had money incomes of less than $2,000 during 1948, according to a recent report of a subcommittee of the Joint Committee on the Economic Report. Chart reflects the report's data, which will be basis of hearings in Washington Dec. 12 to 16 on the problem of low-income families. The report cautions that low cash income does not necessarily indicate poverty, especially in the case of farm families which provide for many of their needs at home. On the other hand, city families with higher cash income may have trouble meeting basic needs.

Don't Let Anybody Fool You!

These Things Will Happen If The Anti-Trust Lawyers Have Their Way

When the anti-trust lawyers from Washington filed their suit against A&P, we told the American people, our customers, our suppliers and our employees how this attack would affect them.

We said that this attack, if successful, would mean the end of A&P as you know it.

We said that it would mean higher food prices for American consumers.

We said that if they succeed in destroying A&P the way would be cleared for the destruction of other efficient large-scale retailers.

We thought the American people were entitled to know about this threat to their welfare and standard of living.

Since that time, however, the anti-trust lawyers have been making speeches, talking over the radio, writing letters and giving stories to the newspapers, in which they say we are all wrong.

They say that this suit will not close a single A&P store; and that instead of raising food prices it will lower them.

And they have tried to give the impression that nobody will be hurt by this decision except the present owners of A&P.

We don't think that the American people want to be confused by these statements. We know that when they have the facts, they will understand that this case can affect the living standards and the way of life of every American citizen.

Here are the facts:

It Will Destroy A&P

The anti-trust lawyers have repeatedly stated that "the suit will not result in the closing of a single A&P store", and that "the purpose of the suit is to enjoin A&P from continuing activity which has been held to violate the law."

The fact is that the suit is designed not only to "enjoin" A&P from alleged illegal activities, but actually to destroy the company.

Here is what they have asked the court to do:

Break up A&P's retail stores into seven groups, each of which must be sold to different owners, and operated under new management.

Order us to sell A&P's factories, which produce many of the fine foods you find in our stores, to still other new owners.

Prevent any of the seven groups of stores from operating any of the factories.

None of the present owners, who have made A&P what it is today, can have anything to do with either the stores or the factories.

The first A&P store was opened 90 years ago. For the past 50 years the company has been managed by George L. Hartford and John A. Hartford.

These are the men who have pioneered the policy of low-cost, low-profit, low-price food retailing which has won A&P the patronage of millions of American families and given them more good food for their money.

If the anti-trust lawyers have their way, these men and other company executives will be completely out of the picture. No one can predict what the policies of the new owners of the various parts of A&P will be.

No one can predict that they will sell the same quality food at the same low prices, or that they will keep the same employees, or give them the same high wages, short hours, pensions and security.

Nor, despite the anti-trust lawyers' statement, can anyone tell how many A&P stores will remain open or will be closed.

So, while there may be a food store where your A&P is now located, it won't be your A&P store.

Make no mistake about it. If the anti-trust lawyers win their suit it will mean the end of A&P as you know it.

Your Food Will Cost More

The anti-trust lawyers have repeatedly stated that the suit will not increase, but should decrease, grocery prices.

Anybody who has ever shopped in an A&P store, or has ever taken a high-school course in economics, knows better than that.

Everyone knows that A&P's policy has always been to keep costs and profits at a minimum so that it can sell good food cheap.

The very heart of the anti-trust lawyers' case is that A&P's methods, which they claim are illegal, have enabled the company to undersell competitors.

How can anyone possibly say that you will get lower food prices by eliminating the company that has done so much to bring them down?

Actually, there is no question that this suit, if successful, will mean higher food prices for A&P customers.

Here is just one of a number of reasons:

We manufacture many of the quality foods we sell in our stores, such as Bokar, Red Circle and Eight O'Clock coffees, Ann Page foods, White House milk, and many others.

The anti-trust lawyers admit that we pass along these manufacturing savings to our customers in the form of lower prices.

But, the anti-trust lawyers have asked the court to order us to get rid of our manufacturing facilities, which would put an end to all these savings.

This means that if these A&P brands continued to be manufactured, you would have to pay higher prices for them wherever you found them.

The anti-trust lawyers say that food prices would go down in other stores. They claim that food manufacturers would be able to sell cheaper to other grocers because they would not have to make up alleged losses they now incur in selling to A&P.

This, of course, is pure nonsense. The suppliers who voluntarily seek our business and are now rushing to our defense obviously find it profitable to deal with A&P. Actually, their sales to this company enable them to build up their volume, reduce their costs, and sell more cheaply to all grocers.

The elimination of A&P from the picture would tend to increase, rather than decrease, the wholesale cost of food; and this, in turn, will be reflected in increases in retail prices.

Make no mistake about it. If the anti-trust lawyers succeed in putting A&P out of business you will find your food bill is higher.

Others Will Be Hurt

The anti-trust lawyers have insisted that this suit will not affect other distributors, "nor will it destroy any efficiencies of mass distribution."

The fact is that the anti-trust lawyers ask the court to break up the company, make it get rid of its admittedly legal manufacturing operations and in general destroy many of the efficiencies which have enabled it to sell food cheaper.

If such an attack is successful, it immediately raises the likelihood of similar attacks on other chain stores.

The anti-trust lawyers are saying that they "do not contemplate any other suits of this nature at this time."

But that does not mean that they cannot undertake such suits at any future time if they win this case.

As a matter of fact, the anti-trust lawyers made practically the same allegations against two of our largest competitors that they are making against us.

And it can also be used as the basis for an attack against other grocers and merchants in other lines.

There are today literally thousands of chain stores, voluntary groups and individual merchants operating with the same methods and in the same pattern here under attack.

If A&P is destroyed, no businessman could safely pursue an aggressive sales policy designed to lower prices and give his customers a better deal if by so doing he takes business away from any competitor.

Even if the anti-trust lawyers have no intention now of prosecuting other suits, a decision against A&P will establish a precedent that could be used by the present anti-trust lawyers, or any future anti-trust lawyers, to destroy any efficient business that buys cheaply, sells cheaply, and grows big in the process.

Such a decision would mean the end of the vigorous, healthy price competition which has given this country the highest standard of living ever enjoyed by any people anywhere in the history of the world.

The anti-trust lawyers are trying to give a new interpretation to the anti-trust laws that, instead of preserving competition, will reduce competition.

They are trying, by court decision, to impose a new kind of economic policy on the people of this country.

Make no mistake about it. If they succeed in destroying A&P they will be destroying the method of distribution that has helped make the American standard of living the envy of the world.

Holds State's New Post-Conviction Law Not Valid

Chicago, Nov. 30—(AP)—A criminal court judge held today that Illinois' new post-conviction law is unconstitutional.

The law permits a prisoner convicted of a felony to write an appeal to the court which convicted him, asking for a review of his case.

Chief Justice Thomas J. Lynch of the criminal court ruled that the law authorizes a lower court to review the findings of the state supreme court.

This, he held, is an unconstitutional "encroachment on the power of the judiciary."

Judge Lynch handed down the opinion on an appeal of Frank Dale, convicted of robbery in 1933 under the habitual criminal act and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Dale's appeal was the thirty-ninth in Cook county under the new law since it went into effect Aug. 4. The act was passed by the legislature after the U. S. supreme court held Illinois' appeal system should be revised. The late Justice Wiley Rutledge of the high court held in an opinion Dec. 22, 1947, that the state's system was a "procedural morass."

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Nov. 30—(AP)—In a moderately active trade hogs proved steady to 25 cents higher today and cattle unevenly 50 cents higher to 25 cents lower. The sheep market just about stood still, however, with most lambs remaining unsold at bids generally $1 lower.

Most barrows and gilts merited $15 to $16.25, a few choice edging up to the sparingly-paid top of $16.35. Sows were mostly $13.50 to $14, but a few topped at $14.25 and heavies roamed on downward to $12. Clearance of overnight supplies was good.

Choice steers sold from $36 to $39.50 and good to low-choice kinds from $28 to $35. Medium to low-choice heifers brought $21.50 to $23. Good beef cows topped at $18.25, good sausage bulls at $19.50, and choice vealers at $26.

The extreme lamb price of $23 was paid but sparingly, most bids ranging downward from $22.50. Ewes were weak at $8.50 to $11.

Included in overnight supplies were an estimated 14,000 hogs, 9,000 cattle, 600 calves, and 3,500 sheep.

Gets 50 Years On Incest Conviction

Los Angeles, Nov. 30—(AP)—Tennis coach Leslie Jahn, 41, today was sentenced to one to 50 years imprisonment on his conviction of incest involving his 16-year-old daughter despite her pleas that he be given leniency.

Laura Lou Jahn, whose testimony that her father had been intimate with her on various occasions since she was 10 aided in his conviction, tearfully pleaded with a probation officer yesterday that Jahn be given probation. Laura Lou, former national girl's indoor singles tennis champion, made the plea in a telephone call from Miami, Fla., where she is now living with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Meska.

When informed at Miami of her father's sentence, Laura Lou said: "Can he be paroled after one year? A year may seem like a short time but it is terrible when it is behind bars. He will be there at Christmas and that makes me sad. I hope he can be given the medical care he should have so that he can become a useful member of society."

There were other requests for probation submitted to Superior Judge William M. Byrne who sentenced Jahn to San Quentin prison on three counts of incest.

WHAT KEEPS COFFEE PRICES PERKING—Newschart above illustrates four factors that helped increase coffee prices. In a recent survey, the Department of Commerce traced the shortage to a steady, 10-year drop in Brazilian production, plus a big increase in consumption. The department says the outlook for increased supplies is "not bright," but foresees no critical coffee "famine." Main reason prices skyrocketed to their present all-time high is "panic buying" by home hoarders.

Declares Split T Is Really 'Sliding T'

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 30.—(AP)—The split T is improperly named. It should be known as the "sliding T." That's the straight from the man—Coach Don Faurot of Missouri—who invented the so-called split T football offense.

The Faurot system, which will show in three teams in Jan. 2 bowl games, features a quarterback sliding parallel to a wide spread line on keep-it or pitch out plays.

Faurot's own Missouri Tigers will meet Coach Jim Tatum's Maryland Old Liners in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla. Last Jan. 1 Missouri lost, 24-23 to Clemson in the same bowl.

Illinois Launches Basketball Card Against Butler

Champaign, Ill. — University of Illinois 1949-50 basketball team, anchored by seven lettermen, launches a nine-game non-conference schedule Saturday facing Butler at Indianapolis.

Coach Harry Combes has lined up a rugged list of sectional opponents prior to Jan. 2 when Illinois will open defense of its Big Ten basketball crown against Wisconsin at Madison.

Following the Butler tilt, Illinois plays its first home game Dec. 8 against Toledo university then meets Oklahoma, twice, Arkansas, St. Louis, U.C.L.A., Columbia, and Princeton on other December games.

Combes stepped up tempo of drills today following a six-week conditioning period, but the Illinois coach is just about as unsettled on picking first-team personnel as he was last year when he shifted men consistently during the season, fitting players against opposition.

Four lettermen seem uncertain to carry a major portion of the load in Illinois' 22-game calendar between now and March 4. Capt. Bill Erickson, Don Sunderlage, Burdette Thurlby, and Wally "Ox" Osterkorn are the virtually certain starters.

49er's Threaten To Strike Unless They Get Bonus

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—(AP)—San Francisco's pro football 49ers today threatened to strike unless guaranteed $500 bonus per player for meeting the New York Yankees in an All-American conference play-off game here Sunday.

Co-owners Tony and Vic Morabito replied: "We'll forfeit the game rather than meet the demand. This is no bluff."

An owner-player meeting failed to solve the differences.

The 49ers defeated the Yanks, 35-14 in a bruising clash here last Sunday to inch second place in the AAC. They meet Sunday to determine which player the winner of the champion Cleveland Browns-Buffalo game in the final play-off.

After the Morabito brothers met with team captain Norm Standlee and halfback Len Eshmont, the owners said:

"We've given them until 9:30 tomorrow morning: (11:30 a.m. CST) to show up for practice in uniform at Menlo Park. If they do not do it, they are to turn in their suits, the season is over, we will forfeit our game to the Yankees and that is the end of it. This is not a bluff. We're not kidding."

BOWLING FOR EVERYBODY

Technical Experts: NED DAY and MILTON RAYMER, in cooperation with the National Bowling Council

NO. 25—SCORING A GAME—STRIKE IN TENTH FRAME

At the end of eight frames, we strike (3) but he still has his bonus of two rolls coming. On the tenth frame you don't wait for your new turn to take your bonus rolls. If you have a strike you roll two extra balls immediately. If you have books on bowling fundamentals, but on his tenth and last frame, he spare you roll one extra ball immediately another strike! (2). He marks mediately.

Nationally Known Sports Writer, Bob Hooley, Dies

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Funeral service will be at 2 p.m. Saturday for Robert E. "Bob" Hooley, 52, nationally-known sports writer. He died early today of injuries suffered in a traffic accident.

The coffin will be borne to the grave in Greenlawn cemetery by eight members of Ohio State University's Big Ten co-champion football team.

Death came about 30 hours after his car figured in a collision at an intersection. He suffered a skull fracture and severe injuries to the brain and never regained consciousness.

Hooley was sports editor of the Ohio State Journal and president of the American Association Chapter of Baseball Writers of America. He wrote a daily column, "that's no hooley."

Hooley was born March 29, 1897, in Waukesha, Wis., and came to Columbus in early childhood.

His widow, Mrs. Gladys Ruth Hooley, and two sisters survive.

NBA President Hits Ham Actions Of Cage Officials

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—President Maurice Podoloff of the National Basketball association blew a shrill whistle at his officials today for ham actions on the floor which he said "belong more properly on the burlesque stage."

In a bulletin sent to all N.B.A. referees, the fiery little boss of the pro circuit said "officials must recognize that the public comes to see the players perform, not the officials who should discharge their duties consistently without attempting to overshadow the players."

"There has been a terrific amount of criticism of the officials and the officiating," Podoloff said in his bulletin, and "something must be done immediately to improve both."

Podoloff listed six things the referees should do in calling a foul and all added up to: call the foul, let the player shoot and get the game on with quickly.

Then the NBA prexy warned his officials:

"Please note that motions of the body, which have been used increasingly and which in some cases belong more properly on the burlesque stage, are to be abandoned immediately. The practice of 'writing' to indicate the number of the offending player, must also stop. To re-emphasize, the only speaking to be done (by an official) when a foul is committed is calling out the number of the player involved."

Ike Williams Is Suspended By NBA

Philadelphia, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Ike Williams was suspended by the National Basketball Association today but the lightweight champion said he's too busy preparing for his title bout with Chicago's Reddy Dawson Monday night to worry about it.

Williams took time out from the increasingly tough problem of making the weight for the Dawson fight to say the announcement from Washington by the NBA that he was suspended was "quite a surprise."

He was suspended at the request of the California State Athletic commission. The state commission said it would not reinstate the champion until he honors a contract for a fight with the Los Angeles Olympic club for $2,000 spent on the proposed contest.

While the suspension means that Williams will not be able to box under NBA auspices it won't have any effect on the title fight next week. The NBA covers every state except New York.

Abe J. Greene, NBA commissioner, explained that any matches contracted for prior to a suspension order are not affected by the suspension.

Williams brushed the whole thing off with a terse statement that he had to call off the Docucon and because of an injured hand and is willing to meet the New Orleans fighter any time Los Angeles promoter Babe McCoy offers a date.

Woman Cab Driver Quits After Giving Ride To Convict

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 30.—(P)—An escaped convict who tried cave-man love-making tactics on her has caused Lee Stuart, 22, to quit her job as a cab driver after only one day.

To Miss Stuart, the man who got into her cab at an Iowa City intersection shortly before noon yesterday was "just another fare."

She didn't know he was Philip Hill 31, an Iowa prison inmate who had just escaped from the University of Iowa hospital where he had been taken for nose treatment.

He was serving a 20-year sentence for assault with intent to rape. She said he got in the front seat with her and after two hours the rough stuff started.

"He said 'give me a kiss' and then he punched me and began to laugh," she related.

Miss Stuart said she repulsed his advances and "then he was nice as pie again."

Finally Miss Stuart got out and stumbled across the fields to a farmhouse. Hill made off with the cab but was captured several hours later at Maquoketa, Ia., 50 miles away.

ICC Okays Issue Of New Bell Stock

Chicago, Nov. 30.—(P)—The Illinois Commerce commission today approved a plan of the Illinois Bell Telephone company to issue and sell 389,982 additional shares of common stock.

The new issue, to be sold at par value of $100 a share, will raise nearly $39,000,000 with which to retire short term loans from the American Telegraph and Telephone company.

The loans were made to finance post war construction by the Illinois system.

The company asked ICC approval of the new issue to relieve its present debt load so new funds may be borrowed for its service improvement and construction program.

Exchange Tuesday Of Three Nurses At Our Saviour's

Three seniors of Our Saviour's School of Nursing are beginning their months of study in the nursing school of St. John's hospital, Springfield, Wednesday, taking the places of three other students who returned to Our Saviour's on Tuesday.

The young women who went down to Springfield yesterday were Miss Teresa Beatty, Griggsville, class president; Miss Mildred Doolin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Doolin, Route 5, Jacksonville; and Miss Betty Waller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waller, White Hall.

These who have just completed their training in pediatrics are Miss Geraldine Lashmet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lashmet, Winchester; Miss Martha Neese, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Neese, Winchester; and Miss Charlene Pieret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pieret, Roodhouse.

Drawing again on his European experiences the graying speaker told that well-to-do peoples of foreign lands, such as Egypt, Asia and Africa, are afraid to send their youths to American schools because "our skins are dark and we're read of the prejudice in your country against dark-skinned people."

Hitting at this self-administered propaganda which Russia is using against us, White worded his final plea: "Let's stop giving to Europeans materials which our enemies could use to eventually destroy us."

Ending on a note of pessimism, he asked, "Can America awaken in time to save herself?"

School Expansion Mrs. Beggs' Topic At Lions Meeting

Mrs. Gertrude Beggs spoke on the approaching situation of overcrowded schools at the Lions club, which convened Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Dunlap hotel. She was introduced by Kenneth Stapleton, program chairman.

The birth rate, stated Mrs. Beggs, increased to 60% more in 1947 than in 1942; and in Jacksonville the number of pupils who started to school in 1948, that is, 176, will stretch to 300 in the next two or three years.

A survey, she said, was made by the University of Illinois' board of education as to Jacksonville's future school needs, and the plans they presented included addition to the rooms at Franklin school and remodeling of Jefferson. A new elementary school on the north side of town was also suggested.

Such preparations will have to be provided for in the next few years, Mrs. Beggs explained, as the city is growing and new people are moving here. It's a problem of taxes.

To date, she concluded on an optimistic note, Jacksonville is the site of four modern elementary schools.

The club is to hold a Ladies' night on Dec. 7 at the Amvets Hall. The event will be in the form of a "Hard Time Party."

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 30.—(P)—Memo to Santa: You'll have to outdo yourself this year, old boy, to impress one Peoria youngster. Here's why:

Police found a small window open early today in a toy warehouse in the rear of the Southwest Gift Shop at 1732 Knoxville ave. The window was just big enough for a child about six or less to get through.

Inside toys were scattered all over the place. Toys had been unpacked by the gross. Dozens of mechanical toys had been wound up, some of which had run down.

A swift inventory showed nothing was missing.

The hottest clue—one small worn glove left behind.
